Apax Partners and Altamir support Altran's transforming acquisition of Aricent

Paris (France), 30 November 2017 – Apax Partners and Altamir confirm their support for the acquisition of Aricent announced today by Altran Technologies, their commitment to vote in favour of the rights issue at the EGM and their intention to participate pro-rata in the rights issue.

The acquisition of the US company Aricent is a transforming operation that will allow Altran to confirm its position as the undisputed world leader in engineering and R&D services.

Apax Partners and Altamir, which have been supporting Altran's strategy since 2008, hold 8.4% of Altran's share capital through the Altrafin Participations holding.

For more information on this operation, please refer to Altran's press release issued today.
