

OL GROUPE

PRESS RELEASE (May 2, 2007)

NEW SUPPLY CONTRACT BETWEEN OL GROUPE AND UMBRO

After publishing its first-half results, including profit from ordinary activities of €26.3m on consolidated turnover of €127.9m, OL Groupe announces that its contract with apparel and equipment supplier Umbro, initially set to expire on 30 June 2010, has been extended until 30 June 2013.

The value of this new contract with Umbro is estimated at €45m, at constant fiscal 2005/06 turnover and before accounting for any upward or downward adjustment due to the club's Ligue 1 or European Cup results.

Under this contract, OL Groupe will receive €7.6m for the 2006/07 fiscal year, including a flat fee of €3.25m, or 2.7 times the amount received for fiscal year 2005/06.

OL Groupe is pleased to pursue its partnership with Umbro. Together with its French affiliate Noël Soccer, the UK supplier proposed terms that made it possible to extend the contract, which was the subject of intense competition from other companies.
