

OL GROUPE

Olympique Lyonnais and the Champions League

Lyon, 3 October 2007

Olympique Lyonnais' loss to the Glasgow Rangers yesterday evening will make it harder but still possible for the club to qualify for the Champions League round of 16.

Should OL not advance to the next round of the Champions League, it may join the UEFA Cup competition, which would generate additional revenue for the club.

Should it not qualify for either of these two European cups, the impact on OL Groupe's financial results for the season, compared with the 2006/07 financial year, would be very minor, owing to the rules for the sharing of UEFA rights among the participating French clubs and because player bonuses linked to participation would not be paid.
