

IMPORTANT CATERING CONTRACT WITH SODEXO

Lyon, 16 June 2008

OL Groupe and Sodexo have signed an important partnership agreement in the area of catering (stadium foodservice, snack shops, VIP reception, etc.). The agreement will take effect from 1 July 2008 and will then have a term of 10 years from the delivery of the new stadium.

In connection with this agreement, OL Groupe will receive a signing fee of €3.5 million (excl. tax) in June 2008.

This agreement tightens the already close relationship that has existed between Olympique Lyonnais and Sodexo since 1994. Sodexo has accompanied the development of the club and was one of its team shirt sponsors in the 1990s.

World leader in foodservices, Sodexo will bring to OL Groupe the catering expertise it has brought to bear in some of the world's biggest sporting events, such as the Tour de France bicycle race, the French Open tennis tournament and the Rugby World Cup (2003 and 2007).

Sodexo is the fourth major OL Groupe partner to renew its commitment to the club over the long term, following Umbro (contract extended in May 2007 for three years until 30 June 2013), Sportfive (contract extended in September 2007 for 10 years from opening of the new stadium) and Apicil (contract extended in February 2008 for two years until June 2010).
