Strengthening of PAREF's management team

Julien Renaud-Perret is appointed Chief Business Development Officer and Antoine Onfray is appointed Chief Financial Officer

PAREF announces the appointment of Julien Renaud-Perret as Chief Business Development Officer and Antoine Onfray as Chief Financial Officer. Following the appointment of Adrien Blanc as PAREF's Deputy Chief Executive Officer at the beginning of November, the Group continues to strengthen its management team and to accelerate the implementation of the company's strategy for growth and for the moving of its property assets upmarket.

Antoine Castro, Chief Executive Officer of PAREF and Head of European Investments at Fosun Properties Holdings said: "We are very pleased to announce the strengthening of PAREF's management team, which will benefit from the international expertise and dynamism of Julien Renaud-Perret and Antoine Onfray. These appointments reflect our ambitions and confirm our willingness to continue satisfying our investor clients and to grow the PAREF Group".

Julien Renaud-Perret, 49, graduated from ISG and INSEAD (MBA), brings 25 years of international expertise in real estate negotiation, strategy and development. Julien Renaud-Perret was previously Managing Director Hospitality Europe for the Fosun Group. Prior joining Fosun he was successively Chief Development Officer of Aman Resort, Chief Development Officer at Orascom AG and Chief Business Development Officer of the Club Méditerranée Group.

Antoine Onfray, 34, began his career at the Société Générale's Inspection Department. In 2010, he joined Unibail-Rodamco where he became Head of Finance, Treasury and Investor Relations, before moving to Eurosic in 2016 as Deputy Chief Financial Officer. Antoine Onfray is an engineer, graduated from the Ecole Nationale de l' Aviation Civile with a specialization in finance and markets from ISAE-SUPAERO.
