

ESPERITE confirms the investigation on its former subsidiary CryoSave.

18 February 2020

Esperite confirms that the Swiss prosecutor launched a preliminary penal investigation into the activities of its former subsidiary CryoSave after several clients and third parties have alerted the Swiss Public Health Authorities over the transport of their samples. The former Director of CryoSave, Frederic Amar who was in office from January 2016 to September 2019 is therefore also under this investigation.

Esperite declares that this indictment will allow its Director, Frederic Amar to defend himself and be able to prove that the company CryoSave and himself have always complied with their obligations and have been transparent.

The presumption of innocence principle applies to CryoSave AG and to its former Director.

Esperite is confident and expects a positive outcome from this process.
