In Banishers: Ghosts of New Eden, players will play both Red and Antea, a couple of Banishers – ghost hunters who vowed to protect the living from the threat of lingering ghosts and specters. After Antea is mortally wounded during a disastrous mission, she becomes one of the very spirits she loathes. In the haunted wilds of North America, the couple desperately searches for a way to liberate Antea from her new plight.

The couple will solve haunting cases and battle supernatural forces, combining both Red's arsenal and Antea's spiritual powers. They will face challenging decisions and weighty choices, which will dramatically alter the story and the fate of New Eden's inhabitants – whether they live or wander as souls. How much will you compromise your ghost-hunting vow for the sake of your lover who has become one of such spirits?

Collector's Edition available to pre-order now
