Paris, February 13, 2024 - DON'T NOD, an independent French studio that creates, develops, and publishes video games and Focus Entertainment are extremely proud to release Banishers: Ghosts of New Eden, the narrative Action-RPG where you take on the roles of two skilled ghost hunters and partners facing challenging decisions with profound consequences for both the living and the dead.

Watch the Launch Trailer now and immerse yourself in a compelling and poignant narrative adventure on PlayStation 5, Xbox Series X|S, and PC.

"Our new action-RPG is now available, ready to lead our players into a captivating and immersive experience. After the worldwide success of Vampyr, also in collaboration with Focus Entertainment, we are proud to unveil our new original intellectual property that pushes the boundaries of the genre. With spectacular fight mechanics, iconic new characters and breathtaking environments, this game is the result of the remarkable work and exceptional expertise of our talented teams. We have been touched by how enthusiastic it was received by our players and the press " says Oskar Guilbert, CEO of DON'T NOD.

Life to the living, death to the dead

Banishers: Ghosts of New Eden is an all-new title crafted by renowned studio DON'T NOD, known for their acclaimed titles such as Life is Strange and Vampyr. Discover New Eden, in 1695, where communities of settlers are plagued by a dreadful curse. As Banishers, step into their lives, investigate the source of evil, unravel chilling mysteries, explore diverse landscapes, and interact with unforgettable characters whose fate lies in your hands.

Antea and Red are trained spirit-hunters, protecting people from lingering specters. But when tragedy strikes and Antea herself becomes a ghost, will you honor your Banisher oath or sacrifice the living in a desperate bid to bring your beloved back?

Face a tragic twist of fate now in Banishers: Ghosts of New Eden.
