Both of our groups also embrace a multi-brand culture. Lastly, the success of our groups is based on similar fundamentals, namely cost variability, the absence of working capital requirements and a solid financial position. This acquisition reinforces our presence in the highly dynamic Nouvelle-Aquitaine region, supported by a young and talented management team. We are also establishing a foothold in the Loiret department, where we previously had limited operations.”*

*“We are delighted to join the HEXAOM Group.
