Paris, February 14, 2024 - WALLIX (Euronext ALLIX), a European cybersecurity software developer and expert in privileged access management (PAM), was awarded a score of 72/100 and a gold medal by Ethifinance ESG Ratings agency.

The Ethifinance ESG Ratings 2023 campaign awarded WALLIX a score of 72/100, up 13 points in one year.

The score was awarded in respect of non-financial data for 2022 on the basis of 140 criteria spanning four main themes: environment, social, governance, and external stakeholders.

WALLIX significantly outperformed the sector average of 47/100 and was ranked 16th among the 234 companies covered by Ethifinance ESG Ratings in the Information Technologies sector. The Group came 36th out of 458 companies generating turnover less than €150 million, beating the category average by 31 points. Lastly, WALLIX ranked 79th out of the 349 French companies surveyed by Ethifinance ESG Ratings, scoring 14 points above the average in this category.

This performance and the significant increase in ratings reflect the progress achieved through the Group's CSR initiatives.

Having obtained the silver medal the previous year, WALLIX's stellar ESG performance last year prompted Ethifinance ESG Ratings to upgrade its award to gold status.
