

Wavestone Ranked in Forbes World's Best Management Consulting Firms 2023 List

Wavestone features in the second edition of the "World's Best Management Consulting Firms" list launched by Forbes and powered by Statista. 229 consulting firms were chosen and ranked by the clients themselves, to help business leaders select the best consulting firms in the market. Wavestone is delighted to be ranked in five of its countries and fifteen of its categories of expertise.

About the Forbes | Statista ranking

Companies sometimes spend thousands to gain from consulting firms' services. It is therefore crucial for them to select the best consulting firms for their specific needs. To help them just do that, Forbes has teamed up with market research company Statista to launch the world's first ranking of the best consulting firms.

To obtain this list, Forbes and Statista conducted an independent evaluation of thousands of multinational management consultancies across up to 40 countries, including the United States, Germany, France, the United Kingdom, Switzerland, and Japan. These firms were evaluated based on survey results of peers, including senior executives from the management consultancies, as well as recommendations from clients to identify the world's best.

The ranking encompasses specific sectors such as healthcare, telecoms, banking, and functional areas such as strategy, sustainability, digital transformation. The 229 consulting firms were ranked according to five stars for "very frequently recommended", four stars for "frequently recommended", and three stars for "recommended".

Focus on Wavestone's performance
